Handy Gardener Ltd

Effective Date: 12 June 2025

At Handy Gardener Ltd, we respect your privacy. Our website does not use cookies of any kind.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that websites store on your device to collect information such as browsing activity or preferences. They are commonly used to enhance user experience, track behaviour, or enable certain website features.

2. Our Cookie Use

We do not use cookies on this website. That means:

- We do not track your browsing activity
- We do not store your preferences
- We do not use analytics or advertising cookies
- We do not use third-party cookies

You can browse our website freely without any form of tracking or cookie-based storage.

3. Future Updates

If we decide to introduce cookies in the future to improve our services, we will update this policy and provide clear options for you to accept or manage cookie settings.
